A FAIR held by the ladies of the Glendale Presbyterian Church this evening.

A CONCERT will be given to-morrow night at the Richmond-street Christian Church.

GRAND military and civic ball of the Centennial Guards at Greenwood Hall to-night.

AND J. C. FIDELITY, corner Sycamore and Pearl, has lost several boxes of cigars. Burglars.

M. GROGAN, ex-policeman of this city, is a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms, in the lower branch of the Ohio Legislature.

MR. D. T. SPORR's residence on Clifton avenue was burglarized last night, and a $400 gold watch and $75 in cash taken.

On Tuesday 55 newboys were vaccinated by Dr. Maley, and on Friday and Sunday next the remainder, about 140, will be attended to.

THE stores of Geo. Roelker and F. H. Fromme, of Mt. Adams, were entered last night, and robbed of 10 pairs of shoes and a lot of groceries.

A THIRTEEN YEAR old daughter of Mrs. White, who lives at 47 H. street, was so terribly burned yesterday, by her clothes catching fire from a grate, that her life is despaired of.

THE Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad Company have brought suit against Ross Fenton, County Treasurer, to restrain the collection of $7,800 taxes illegally assessed against them.

Miss ANNIE B. WYNN, an accomplished pianist, was married yesterday afternoon at the residence of her parents to A. G. GORDON, M. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y. She left for her new home.

JOE LEVI, of 48 Oliver street, would like to know where his coat and hat have wandered to. He thinks they were stolen from Jack Story's stable, in the alley between Ludlow and Lawrence.

THE daily market of R. S. Barnes, No. 390 W. Sixth street, was entered by burglars night before last, and robbed of some six or seven dollars in cash. Nothing else was disturbed, strange to say.

UNCLE JOHN ROBINSON has learned by a telegram from his son Jack that the train containing the show jumped the track at Mendota, Miss., and one of the animal-keepers was killed and two others injured. No names given.

THE little daughter of Will C. Hurley, of 107 Betts street, was terribly burned last Sunday by pulling over upon herself a can of concentrated lye which was left within her reach. There is hopes of her recovery if inflammation does not set in. She is but 13 months old.

THE bond of Judge Taft as a Trustee of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, fixed by the Supreme Court at one hundred thousand dollars, was perfected yesterday. The bondsmen are David Sinton, James Gilmore, Joseph Kinsey and Charles P. Taft.

A GRAND sacred concert will be given at Ayon Hall on Friday evening, December 17, 1876, at 7 1/2 o'clock, by the Mozart Singing Circle, for the benefit of the First Baptist Church of Avondale, Prof. W. H. Farham director. Addresses will also be delivered by Revs. Broadbeck and Camp.

Mrs. MELSEMER, of 331 Elm street, after taking some money from her pocket-book with which to pay for some purchases made in a store yesterday, placed the book, containing about $40, under her left arm. That's the last she saw of it. Moral—Put your money under the right arm.

L. D. MORTON, Superintendent of Power Hall of our Cincinnati Industrial Exposition for several years, has been called to fill a similar position in the Philadelphia Centennial. A. B. Restio, artist of Horticultural Hall, has also been appointed to render a similar service in that department at the Centennial.

Threlkeld, Thrice Illustrious Master; James S. Robinson, Deputy Master; Frank Harkness, Perennial Conductor of Work; J. W. Foster, Treasurer; W. E. Atkins, Recorder; Charles H. Flach, Captain of Guard; Frank S. Holmes, Conductor; Edwin L. Melner, Steward; Henry Becker, Sentinel. The installation ceremonies were conducted by Past Thrice Illustrious Master W. C. Middleton, of Cincinnati Council, No. 1.

Mrs. POTENT used to be the boss of a sewing machine for the Weed Company, until she got married to Mr. F., an attaché of the Remington concern. After a while a man named Ruliff appeared, who, it appears, had united with this Potent lady many years ago, when her name was Miss Belle Lindsay. Some time ago the woman disappeared. Now Potent offers to give up the Potent charmer for $300. Ruliff makes a counter proposition to "turn up" the woman in dispute for $100. It's a case of the inwardness of which "no fellow can find out."

A COUNCIL, composed of ministers and laymen from the different Evangelical Churches, will meet at the residence of James P. Langdon, Esq., near Russell Station, L. M. Railroad, this afternoon at half-past two o'clock, to examine the basis of fellowship of the Union Christian Church of Linwood. A. M. Lookout, with a view to recognizing the organization as a Church of Jesus Christ. The installation of the pastor elect will take place at Linwood Hall this evening at half-past seven o'clock. Sermon by Rev. Dr. Morris, of Lane Seminary. Address of Recognition by Rev. T. J. Melish. Address to the Pastor by Rev. T. DeWitt Peak, of Milford.

So prevalent and so fatal has Consumption become, that it is now everywhere dreaded as the great scourge of humanity. And yet, in their formative stages, all Pulmonary Complaints may be readily relieved and controlled by resorting promptly to Dr. Jayne's Expectant—a curative specially adapted to soothe and strengthen the Bronchial tubes, allay inflammation, and loosen and remove all obstructions. It is a certain remedy for Asthma, and also for Coughs and Colds.

The Davenport Club, Friday evening, will read the "Willow Copse," with Mrs. Blinn as "Sir Richard Vaughn," Mrs. Mendel as "Rose Fielding," and a strong cast throughout. Mr. Callahan takes the character of "Vanguard." The Davenport is always greeted by a full house, made up of the most intelligent people of the city.

IT seems that some expert forgers are getting in their work pretty extensively on at least one bank in the city, through the fraudulent use of well known Stock-yard names. In one instance $700 was obtained on a forged check, bearing the signature of Israel Brown, and in another $500 was secured on a forgery of the name of Fuerst & Kahn, the German Savings Institution being the sufferer in both cases. It is believed that the forgers have systematically gone about the Stock-yards acquiring small checks of business men in ordinary transactions of trade, in order to imitate the handwriting in checks for much larger sums. In this they have been eminently successful, for the paying teller of the bank imposed on says the signatures in both cases referred to were so perfect that they not only deceived him, but would have passed current with the ostensible drawers of the checks, had it not been for the discrepancy in the amounts drawn for. Both Johnson or order," both were paid Monday a week ago, and both were paid without hesitation. The matter coming to the notice of Col. Snelbaker, Chief of Police, he went out to the Yards and arrested a small broker there, named William M. Hosea, brought him to the Ninth-street Station-house, and, after a critical examination, released him. The real culprits have not as yet been discovered.

Court Cullings.

Alfred J. Swing brought suit against the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company, before Judge Murdoch yesterday, as the administrator of Christopher Elwood, to recover $10,000 damages for causing the death of Elwood, averring that there was negligence in the management of the train. Elwood was killed near North Bend. Case in progress.

Emma Dick entered suit against the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad Company, as the administratrix of Martin Dick; she claims $10,000 damages for the loss of Martin Dick's life by being run over by a train on the defendants' road. The defendants moved to arrest the case from the jury as the negligence was on the part of the engineer, who was a fellow servant of the deceased. The Court granted the motion and dismissed the case.

Ann Cole vs. the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad Company. Court granted the defendants a new trial.

Henry Grimm was yesterday appointed administrator of the estate of Richard Rugg, deceased. Personally, $3,000; Real Estate, $6,000.

August Weisgerber was appointed administrator of Charles Weisgerber, deceased. Estate $100 in personalty.

The Coroner has investigated the case of the reported finding of the body of a child in a culvert in the yard of Mr. Elias Brill, on Hust street, near Hamilton road, and found that it was only an afterbirth, which had been in there for several weeks. It was accounted for in a very legitimate way, a lady of known respectability, living in the same house with the Brill, having been confined and delivered of a child some two or three weeks ago. Furthermore, the gentleman, Mr. Peter Smith, who lodged information with the Coroner in the first place, called upon Dr. Maley this morning to state that he himself had been misinformed with regard to the matter, he never having seen the thing, but had taken the word of other parties concerning it.

Billy Bernhard and a young man by the name of Stang were the parties who had originally brought the thing to light some two weeks ago, which first gave rise to the report which gradually grew into a neighborhood scandal. Stang was interviewed upon the subject, and stated that it was an after-birth, though so de-composed that in the first place he had taken it for a fetus. So much for the "Three black crows."

Amusements.

WOOD'S THEATER.—There was something like a better audience at this house last evening, upon the occasion of the second appearance of Mr. Proctor, as "Nick of the Woods," than upon Monday evening. The play ran much better than upon its first presentation, and several of the awkward bits and stage waits that marred the piece upon Monday were completely overcome. Last evening every one seemed to be well up in his business, and now if a few good-sized men, carefully made up, as they say in stage parlance, and those, too, who have some knowledge of acting, for it requires acting, could be put on as Indians, instead of a new bandy-legged supers, who know nothing about acting, and look about as much like Indians as so many pump-handle, "Nick of the Woods" would be about as attractive a play as has been offered the amusement public this season. Some of the characters, considering the scope allowed them, were excellent; among such we could mention Mr. Graham, Mr. Mackey, Miss Dot and Miss Mayer. Mr. Mackey's costume was handsome and extremely becoming. The play was well mounted, some of the set scenes being beautiful.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—The performance of "Around the World" was witnessed by an immense audience last evening. The play is a grand success, and will no doubt yield the Kraliyas a rich harvest. Matinee this afternoon at two o'clock.

THE NATIONAL.—There was a good audience in attendance at this house last evening, the variety programme being especially good. The stock all appeared to very good advantage in the new play of "Crime." Matinee to-day.

Brown Bread as a Detective.

[From the Boston Transcript.]

Not far out in the suburbs of Boston is an ancient burying-place, wherein are headstones that afford food for the antiquarian mind, which are zealously guarded by a faithful sexton. Recently, this custodian missed one of the earliest dated of the mortuary memorials, and he put all his wits to work to discover his whereabouts for some time without success. One Sunday morning he went to his bakers for the customary Sunday breakfast of brown bread and beans.

In serving the repast, his eye fell upon something unusual on the under-side of the loaf—"Here lies ye?"—in reverse order, which after some study, he succeeded in deciphering. No better success passed the sexton's lips until the cause of this strange impress was solved. He hastened to the baker's for a solution. The baker-house adjoined the cemetery. The floor of the baker's oven had given out, and the bread had been covered with the ancient grave-stones, which, happily for the sexton's peace of mind, was unaltered by the heat to which it had been subjected.
